Yarborough, was celebrated at 11 o'clock on Thursday morning at the home of the bride, 161 North Twenty-ninth Street. The parlor was decorated in palms and cypresses, and Miss Ulline Valdean, of New Kent County, played the wedding march. The bride entered with her father, who gave her away. She wore a traveling suit of dark blue broadcloth, with hat and gloves to match, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and roses. Occupies High Place in Capital Society

Mrs. John Skelton Williams.

Mrs. Williams is the wife of the Comptroller of the Currency, but the prominent part she takes in the social affairs of Washington is not due exclusively to the high place her husband holds, but to her own qualifications for the place. Mrs. Williams is one of the most beautiful and talented women the Democratic administration has brought to the capital. She is an artist of no mean talent, having studied art in Paris, where two of her pictures were accepted by the salon. She speaks several foreign languages fluently, which alone is one of the first qualifications for success in the cosmopolitan society of the nation's capital. Of her family much could be said, for she belongs to one of the oldest and most distinguished in Virginia, and is related to the Randolphs, the Carters and the Harrisons, all names which have a prominent place in Virginia history. The Williamses have a beautiful place near Richmond, which is one of the show places of the State.

It was played by other teams, as Mrs. Randolph and Mr. Brice refused to play owing to her illness. The team being the above mentioned two, with Mr. Salmon and Mrs. Skelton as leaders. The club has also recalled the invitations for the opening dance next Saturday night, as Mrs. Randolph, Mrs. John Morrey and Mrs. Salmon are its sponsors.

Quiet Wedding.
A pretty but quiet wedding took place on Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock, when Miss Hazel James Chestnut, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Chestnut, became the bride of James Edward Stewart, of this city. The ceremony, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, was performed by the Rev. John J. Wicker, only the immediate families being present. The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue, with a modish hat to match and a corsage bouquet of purple orchids. She was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Stewart and her bride immediately after the ceremony for New York and other Northern points, where they will spend their honeymoon. After November 15 they will be at home, at 2320 Park Avenue, Richmond.

At the Art Club.
The Rev. Dr. J. O'Connell, Catholic Bishop of Richmond, will lecture at the Art Club of Richmond Tuesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock on the subject of "St. Francis, of Assisi." This lecture will open the lecture season at the Art Club, and as Bishop O'Connell is a great favorite everywhere, a large audience will be present to hear him. Tea will be served by the house committee after the address is concluded.

This is the first meeting of the fall and it is hoped that there will be a large attendance as plans for the coming year, and the winter will be discussed. The first fall meeting of the West Point Civic League was held last Monday afternoon in the reception room of the high school building. If the spirit that characterized this meeting is to be taken as evidence of the interest that the members feel in the work, then, certainly the league has entered upon a most active and prosperous period of its existence.

Committees were appointed to carry on the work of improving the grounds, to place wall clocks in the class rooms, add to the furnishings of the laboratory, and to prepare a list of books to be purchased for the library.

The president, Mrs. W. Eastwood, spoke of the fall meeting of the Teachers' Association of King William County, that will be held in West Point early in November.
